

INDIAN CREEK MIDDLE SCHOOL
ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thursday, March 24, 2011

Today is Declan Booker's birthday. If you see Declan, wish him a happy birthday.

Yearbooks will be on sale until tomorrow! Final orders will be placed before we leave for Spring Break. Order today – Don't delay. Thanks The Yearbook staff

You should receive your spring picture packet today. Please look it over with your family and decide whether you want to purchase a few shots, the whole packet or return the whole packet. Lifetouch will pick up the returned packets sometime in early April. We ask that you return money for the whole packet, money and partial packet, or unwanted full packet by Friday, April 8.

Congratulations to Anna McComb, Jonathan Farnsworth, and Drew Diehl who were winners in the DeKalb County Essay Contest Generation 20/20. Anna earned a first place plaque for her entry and $75.00 for her effort, Jonathan received a plaque and $50.00 and Drew received a plaque and $25.00. There were 110 essays submitted throughout the county and ICMS had the top three. Congratulations to all.

Students, Ms. Burton has extended an invitation to come see the students practicing for the Night at the Museum, during Wolf today. Students will be stationed in the small gym, large gym, first floor hallways, and 7th and 8th grade hallways. The extra practice will help us prepare for the Night at the Museum at 7:00 PM this evening.

You should have received a report card last Friday. A signed copy of your report card is due to your homeroom teacher yesterday.

Due to our early release tomorrow, the strength & conditioning facility will be open from 2PM to 4PM. Coach Sabastiano

Eighth graders interested in going out for golf in high school are encouraged to help clean the Indian Oaks Golf Course during spring break. We will be cleaning the course from 9 to noon on March 28, 29 and 30. Bring a rake and dress for the weather. Thanks Mr. Olson
